CITY NEWS.

Police Proceedings—Monday, Sept. 12.
As is generally the case on Monday morning, the Police Court room was filled with both criminals and "loiterers on," and among the former we noticed some of the lowest "cases" we have ever been called to look upon. Notwithstanding there was a large number of idlers present, the City Marshal with his deputies succeeded in keeping good order. The following cases were disposed of:

Matilda Jackson, a rough-looking customer, was first presented on the charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct. She is the woman who attempted to commit suicide because her husband deserted her; she was sent to the almshouse.

Thomas Clifford, drunk and disorderly conduct. He was violently lashing under a bit of mania; discharged.

Peter McFarlane, drunkenness and disorderly conduct; fined $5.

W. E. Barnes, drunkenness and disorderly conduct; fined $5.

Lacy Bell, a slave, and Isaac Tompkins (I. m. c.), stealing wood from John A. Stansberry. They were committed to the workhouse; bond of Isaac to answer for keeping a disorderly house.

John Slender, drunk and disorderly and destroying the property of Jessie Terry. Fined $10, and security in $300 for three months.

Five Flemming, drunk and disorderly. Discharged.

James Connel, assaulting a soldier named Hilliard. Continued until to-morrow.

John W. Dawson and John Manly, demanding money from Pat Connel, Peter Thomas and Lewis Mirek, with intent to rob. Bailed in $400 to answer.

Robert Oliver, stealing a watch worth $4 from J. E. Sutton. Bailed in $400 to answer.

L. H. Pettum, stealing $15 from J. J. Boggs. Continued.

A number of peace warrants were disposed of.

THE CITY.—The city presented rather a busy appearance yesterday, mostly in a military way. It was a pleasant day, and our sidewalks were lined with ladies who were "loitering in the sunshine," shopping, etc. Main street was full of military appearance, the sidewalks in several places being lined with dry goods boxes, barrels, etc. First street is kept busy by the fast running of railroad trains and an occasional scream from a runaway locomotive.

Upper Main street is full of dirt, excepting that which is carried off in people's rags. Market street is full of mud, dust, holes, watermelons and children. Other streets were not so lively. The day passed off quietly as usual. The places of amusement were all filled with fine and fashionable audiences. The fair at Masonic Temple was a success, and it could not be otherwise, for it takes the fairest to be fair with those who would attend the affair fairly. W. H. H.

Last Saturday evening officers Charles Glass and Charles McKelvey arrested one John Clifford, who, while laboring under the effects of mania, entered the room where the corpse of his wife was lying, and endeavored to cut the coffin in pieces and also destroy the body of the deceased. He had bolted the door, which was broken open by the officers, and as they entered he sprang upon them with the ferocity of a tiger, and struck at them several times with the ax. Officer McKelvey received a slight wound in the left knee. The accused was brought before the Police Court yesterday morning, but as he had recovered from his fit of insanity, he was let off by the Judge.

Col. Farleigh has not yet received any information from the Secretary of War in relation to the return of soldiers' wives and relatives, who were stopped a few days ago. When he does due notice will be given to those entitled to them, and to none other. A different plan from the former one will no doubt be adopted as regards the disposition of ration.

Last night two men got into a dispute on the corner of First and Jefferson streets, when one drew a pistol and fired at the other. Both ran—one in one direction, the other in the opposite. Their hats were found upon the premises, and it was thought for a while that they had been shot, but with nothing but their hats left of them.

SENECADE.—The beautiful and accomplished young ladies composing the Carter Zouave troops have our thanks for a beautiful serenade given at our office yesterday. These young ladies play upon the brass instruments with the same ease as old musicians, and are the only troops of ladies that can accomplish the same.

There was not much business transacted in military circles yesterday. Military matters at present are rather dull in this city and surrounding country, save now and then an occasional squad of guerrillas are brought in. Quick disposition is made of them by the authorities.

Another lot of "unlabeled Americans" were gobbled up on Sunday night. There are too many negroes running about the streets at night in this city, and it should be stopped. Some of them got what they didn't "go for"—a licking.

Yesterday officer Gilmore arrested a man by the name of John Mett, charged with stealing a watch and pistol from a house of prostitution in the upper portion of the city.

DROWNED.—A little boy was drowned yesterday afternoon in the river at the foot of Sixth street. We did not learn his name.

The train which was run off the track yesterday by guerrillas, on the Bardonia railroad, arrived last night.

ROMING SOLDIERS' LETTERS.—Several days ago the worthy postmaster at Bardonia No. 1 sent home on a short-furlough, and engaged C. C. Olin, company C, One Hundred and Twenty-fourth Ohio, was selected as a suitable person to fill the position in his absence, which he did, as every one thought, until yesterday, when he was detected by Lieut. Hawley and Lieut. Morris. He occupied a desk directly opposite Lieut. H.—each sitting back to back—and placed a looking-glass before him so that he could watch the movements of Olin without being suspected. By this means he saw him tear open several letters and take out the contents. Without saying anything to Olin, he notified Lieut. Morris of the theft, and to make sure of his property, they each took money in an envelope, the former a $1 bill marked, the latter two broken bank bills, and had them dropped in the letter box by a soldier. Lieut. H. resumed his seat, and through the aid of the mirror saw Olin take the identical envelopes out of the box and extract the money therefrom. In a few moments Olin asked leave to go out with a friend and play "pidgeon." It was granted, and the two Lieutenants examined the box and found their letters missing. This was enough. So they followed up the thief, and at once arrested him, put him in heavy irons and lodged him in the guard-house. The money was found upon his person. It is not known how long the thief has been engaged in this dirty piece of business, nor how much of the poor soldiers' money he has robbed them of; they having been paid off a few days ago, and a larger portion of their hard earned money passed through the rascal's hands. It is supposed though that he has broken open a great many letters, as he has recently bought a fine stock of clothing, and known to have sent different lots of money to his wife. He should be made to suffer for his rascality to the fullest extremity of military and civil law.

BARBODIA TRAIN CAPTURED BY FOUR GUERRILLAS.—Yesterday morning about 10 o'clock, as the passenger train from Bardonia for this city was coming through a curve at Big Spring, eight miles from Lebanon Junction, it ran into a cross tie, throwing the engine and tender from the track, which caused the balance of the train to come to a sudden standstill. No sooner than it was stopped, John McFarlane, a licit. Yankee, a man named McFarlane, and one other, whose names we could not learn, entered the passenger car with shot-guns and revolvers, and shouted: "Pocketbooks, money, watches," etc., telling every one that they had forty more just like themselves close by. The passengers at once complied with their request, and after robbing all on board they ordered them out of the car, which order was quickly obeyed. The guerrillas, who were drunk, set fire to the passenger car and destroyed it, and would have completed the destruction of the train and engine, but were persuaded from so doing by a lady who was a passenger. They then took to the woods. There were some soldiers at work on the railroad, whom the guerrillas forced to help them fetch the tie under the train. McFarlane said that he expected there would be some Federal officers on the train, whom he intended to shoot in retaliation for those who were shot back of Bardonia Junction a day since by the Federal soldiers. There was no guard on the train at the time. This is the second time that this same party have captured a train and robbed the passengers of their watches and money. An engine was sent out with a guard yesterday, to bring back what is left of the passengers and train. The train on this road seems to be running for the accommodation of McFarlane and his gang.

THE RACES TO-DAY.—There will be two races over the Woodlawn Course to-day, which promise to be very exciting, as the horses are well matched and the track will no doubt be in excellent order. The first race is a match for $2500 a side, two-mile heats, between "Maiden" and an Indian gelding known as "Frank Armstrong." The second race is also two-mile heats, between Collins' "Sam Thomas" and Shapard's "Nancy Young." The cars will leave the depot of the Louisville and Frankfort railroad at 12:30 p. m. We would say to those who attend the track, that Messrs. Gwinn & Co., of Walker's Exchange, will be present, which is a sure guarantee that they can obtain all they wish to eat and drink. There will no doubt be a full attendance, and the betting will be lively.

Pools will be sold this morning at the Hotel de Ruine by C. A. McDonald & Co.

The funeral of whom we made mention in our yesterday's issue, is reported to have been a Mrs. Jackson, who but about three weeks ago was Miss Matilda Mills, of Dearborn county, Indiana. She married a man named Jackson, belonging to the Nineteenth Ohio, against the wishes of her parents, and he deserted her. Her parents refused to admit her into their home, and she fled to this city, where she gave up the search in despair and resorted to put an end to her miserable existence by drowning herself. The coroner has not been heard from since a water after the funeral. She is paralytic in her foot and limbs, of prepossessing appearance, and but nineteen years of age. She was sent to the almshouse.

HEAVY ROBBERY.—ARREST OF THE PARTIES. On Sunday morning Jos. Ford, who boards at the house of Dawson, on the corner between Sixth and Seventh streets, was robbed of over $600 in Indiana and Kentucky money and some $100 in United States 10:30's. He retired Saturday night, placing the pocket-book containing his money under the pillow, and when he awoke in the morning it was gone, as were also his two bed-room companions, Jno. Wood and C. H. Ellis. Yesterday a warrant was issued against these two men, who were arrested at Fort No. 1, where they were at work by officers Thomas Angleton and Joel Lamberson. They will have a hearing before Judge Johnson this morning.

BARRACKS NO. 1.—Business was rather brisker than usual at the Barracks yesterday. Eighty convalescents arrived from different parts; 289 new recruits came from Columbus, Ohio, three deserters from Cincinnati, and three prisoners from the same place, fifteen convalescents were sent to Nashville, fifteen to Bowlinggreen, twelve to Lexington, and 170 substitutes and recruits, under a guard of twenty-two men, were sent to the front.

FAIR.—The Masonic Temple was very handsomely decorated last night, and the ladies were filled with everything that men or women could desire—and attended to by handsome young ladies. The ball was well-lighted, and to-night and you will spend a pleasant evening.

Four deserters were arrested in the city yesterday, and placed in the military "lock up" until further orders shall arrive from "those to whom it may concern." Their names are J. Davidson, A. J. Coker, A. Hempel and E. Boyle.

We are requested by Colonel Barry to state that the officers and men equipped of the Fifth Kentucky Infantry will meet at the Arsenal, corner of Rowan and Fourteenth streets, to-day at 10 A. M.

A lot of "unlabeled Americans" passed on Third street last evening. We could not learn where they were from or where they were going. All of them were under guard.

About two hundred sick and wounded soldiers were sent to their respective homes from the hospitals in this city yesterday.

Another train arrived from Nashville yesterday with a lot of sick and wounded soldiers on board.

A DANKIN R. HENRY.—On Saturday evening one of the most daring robberies we have ever heard of occurred on the Louisville and Henderson packet Star Gray Eagle, lying at the Portland wharf. The facts are as follows: As old gentlemen, a resident of Owensboro, by the name of J. E. Sutton, was sitting at the head of the steps, quietly enjoying himself over a dose of Havana, when a young man by the name of Robert Oliver ran up the steps and snatched from his pocket a fine gold watch valued at $500, at the same time cutting the guard and giving down the stairs of the boat to double quick. Mr. Sutton cried out, "stop thief!" "stop thief!" which attracted the attention of officers McKim and Harrow, who at once laid hold of Oliver, who was making up the wharf and who at the time had in his hand an open knife. The watch was picked up on the wharf where it had been dropped by Oliver. The accused had an examination before Judge Johnston yesterday morning, and was committed in default of $400 to answer at the Circuit Court.

ROBERT OF THE LOUISVILLE TRANSFER COMPANY.—For some time past the Louisville Transfer Company have been missing some very valuable packages, which they have had to pay for, amounting to a very large sum. The police were notified of this fact, and they succeeded last night in arresting the following persons, who are drivers for the company: H. H. Ford, Willis, Shaw, Deane and Martin, and lodged them in jail. Upon examining the premises of these men they found two boxes of goods, several trunks and a lot of other valuable articles. It is not known how long these fellows have been engaged in this business, but the Transfer Company have suffered greatly by paying for goods which have been lost by them. They will be presented before the court this morning for examination. The officers who made this important arrest were Chief of Police Pratt, Messrs. Bigh, Gilchrist, Tiller, Gallagher and Secker.

WOOD'S THEATRE.—The Carter Zouave Troupe continue to draw large audiences at Wood's Theatre. They are the finest troupe of artists that have ever visited our city, and will no doubt be fully appreciated by our citizens during the present week. Miss Maggie, who is undoubtedly the best member in the troupe, was warmly received in "Pinafore," "The Beggar's Opera," and "The Two Orphans." She is superior to any we have ever seen, and will no doubt prove a favorite wherever the troupe may travel. They give another performance at the theatre to-night.

LOUISVILLE THEATRE.—The young and popular American actor, W. F. Barry, commenced an engagement at this popular place of amusement last night at Elliott Gray, in the beautiful new play of "Roadside." This play is full of interesting incidents, will be repeated to-night.

THE HOLMAN OPERA TROUPE commence an engagement in this city at Masonic Temple on next Monday night.

TEN PINS.—Messrs. Cwells & Co., the recently proprietors of the famous "Walker's Exchange," are ready to contribute to the pleasure of our citizens, have raised up their place in a style that cannot be surpassed. Now always have been laid, and everything for convenience and comfort has been arranged. Those of our citizens who are fond of this healthy and at the same time innocent amusement should drop in at "Walker's," which is the only place in the city where good alleys can be found.

AN INCIDENT.—Yesterday when the guerrillas boarded the Bardonia train, several gentlemen handed over their watches and money—amounting to about $1,000—a lady afterwards of fifty years of age, who was on her way to this city. She managed to come away unharmed by the guerrillas, and with others, walked eight miles to the Lebanon Junction, and arrived in this city yesterday afternoon with her booty. This was a noble deed.

The funeral of Mr. Rich, who committed suicide, took place yesterday afternoon from Hospital No. 5, on Center street. The remains were followed to Cave Hill Cemetery by a large concourse of friends and acquaintances, including all the officers belonging to the hospitals in this city. We were informed when we stated it was dry clothes he took; it was morbid.

Before the United States Court, which convened on the 1st of October in October, will be brought a large number of conviction cases, involving over $1,000,000 worth of property in this city which is said to belong to persons in the rebel army.

The post clerk at headquarters has been kept pretty busy since the 1st of January, 1864. Over 12,000 papers have been issued to citizens going to Nashville, Clarksville and Gallatin during that time.
